DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The specification, page 12, the brief description of Figs. 13d and 13e is missing.

Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "mixed signal for providing simulated active percepts for passive perception" as recited in claim 1 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Regarding claim 1, it is not clear what exactly is "a mixed image signal for providing simulated active percepts for passive perception." It is not clear where exactly in the specification and drawings that shows "a image signal for providing simulated active percepts for passive perception." It is not clear how "a mixed image signal for providing simulated active percepts for passive perception."

Dependent claims 2-13 are considered rejected for incorporating the defects from their respective parent claim 1 by dependency.

Claims 2-12 and 14-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 2 and 14, lines 10-11, the term "may" does not recited a definite limitation since it "may" or "may not". Lines 13-15 recites "the highly detailed component may be cast on the fovea of the retina of the viewer's eye and the lesser detailed component may be cast on the remainder of the retina of the viewer's eye for stimulating the viewer to experience percepts corresponding to the simulated percepts." This is not clear since the highly detailed component "may be" or "may be not" cast on the fovea of the retina and the lesser detailed component "may be" or "may be not" cast on the remainder of the retina. And when this happens, the whole system "may" or "may not" work to provide successive mixed optical images to the viewer.

Dependent claims are considered rejected for incorporating the defects from their respective parent claims by dependency.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 2676

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-29 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-32 of U.S. Patent No. 5,422,653. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-29 of the present invention are broader than claims 1-32 of the U.S. Patent No. 5,422,653.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Milgram et al (5,175,616).

Regarding claim 1, Milgram et al disclose (Figs. 1, 7 and 8) a method, comprising the steps of:

receiving an image signal (pointer image 371), and providing, in response to the image signal, a mixed image signal (Fig. 1, a composite image signal 23) for providing simulated active percepts for passive perception (Fig. 7 shows the simulated scene (simulated active percepts) is being viewed through a pair of stereoscopic video cameras 14 and 16 (passive perception)). See column 8, lines 6-11 and 44-46.
